WorldWinner and AOL Extend Partnership to Provide Tournaments on AOL Games Properties

TORONTO – April 5, 2007 – FUN Technologies Inc. (TSX:FUN) (AIM:FUN) today announced that its WorldWinner (www.worldwinner.com) subsidiary has renewed its agreement with AOL LLC (formerly America Online, Inc.) to provide skill-based cash and prize, and other tournaments on AOL Games (<http://games.aol.com>) and Games.com (<http://games.com>)¹. Under the terms of the agreement, WorldWinner will develop a customized, co-branded site where AOL players can compete against thousands of players in the WorldWinner network.

The customized site will feature WorldWinner's complete game offerings, including popular casual titles such as SCRABBLE® Cubes, Solitaire, Bejeweled 2 and Luxor. In addition to WorldWinner skill-based cash and other prize competitions, AOL Games® will feature a selection of casual games from Teagames.com, FUN's free, Flash-based casual games site. Teagames' catchy titles, including TG Motocross 2, Pitch 'n' Putt Golf and Alpine Freestyle, attract more than five million unique visitors per month from 19 countries worldwide.²

"We are proud to extend our partnership with AOL – a leading consumer brand and innovator of online services," said Lorne Abony, CEO of FUN Technologies. "Our relationship further strengthens FUN's position as one of the leaders in the casual games industry, introducing millions of new players to WorldWinner's popular tournament games. We look forward to continuing to offer exciting, fast-paced, skill-based cash and other prize competitions to new and existing AOL users around the world."

"AOL is committed to enhancing the customer experience by expanding service offerings to continue building a robust online community," said Greg Mills, Director of Casual Games, AOL

¹ A partnership between AOL LLC and SkillJam Technologies Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of FUN Technologies, was initially established in 2004. SkillJam has since been consolidated with WorldWinner.

² According to comScore Media Metrix, December 2006.

Games. “Partnering with WorldWinner is yet another step in that direction, offering superior casual games content and an unmatched player network.”
